SOCIETY

THE CHERNIATSKY CONCERT.

It is safe to say that "the 400" of Honolulu were at the Opera House Wednesday evening to greet the three talented Russian musicians, Leo, Jar and Mischel Cherniatsky. The house was packed from pit to gallery, not a seat left unoccupied, and the last number on the program brought a sigh of regret. Everyone was very loath to leave and would have remained till midnight listening to the players. At times it almost seemed as if there were no living creature in the house other than the artists, so still was the auditorium. It was an evening of perfect pleasure. Great indeed is the gift of anyone able to hold an audience. It was a pretty house to look at. This old-fashioned theater always gathers well-dressed people. Few men go other than in evening dress and the women of Honolulu have always dressed delectable. Mrs. Walter Hoffmann, who before her marriage was an opera singer, claimed that a Honolulu audience was one of the "best to look at" that she had ever sung before.

Wednesday night many who were unable to get seats and who did not wish to miss the concert were willing to stand throughout the program. Society turned out in force and will do so at each concert this talented trio gives.

An interesting bit of news about Leo is that he is engaged to the wonderful esthetic dancer, Maude Allen. Mischel last year won the hand of Miss Mary Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Rogers of Vancouver, B. C.

On arriving in San Francisco after their concert here they will be met by the Rogers family in their steam yacht and will sail leisurely north, after which they will give concerts in Salt Lake, Denver and St. Louis, arriving in New York City to fill an engagement for the 15th of January of next year. The Cherniatskys have gone to the Mauna, as they have friends there and all three are keen about surfing and canoe riding and want to spend as much of their leisure time on the beach as is possible.

Some among the audience Wednesday night were Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Chief Justice and Mrs. Alexander G. M. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds B. McGrew, Col. and Mrs. Wilmet D. Ellis, Brig.-Gen. and Mrs. Frederick Strong, Mr. and Mrs. J. HONORING MRS. ELIZABETH KNIGHT

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the luncheon with which Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth entertained.

Mrs. Elizabeth Knight, who is being heartily welcomed back to Honolulu by many friends, and who is the incentive for numerous affairs.

lained for Mrs. Elizabeth Knight. The table was very daintily decorated with all the pastel shades, snapdragons and sweet peas, while lacy ferns were most effectively used. Bridge was the diversion for the afternoon.

Mrs. Knight is just as popular today as she was when she was "Tootsie" Dowsett. Her friends have been showing this popular matron with all kinds of attention. Mrs. Chillingworth's guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Knight, Mrs. Albert P. Taylor, Mrs. Harold Giffard, Mrs. Arthur G. Hodgins, Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes, Mrs. David Dowsett, Princess Kalaniana'ole and Mrs. Stella Kea.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB DINNER

The Commercial Club was a very gay place on Tuesday evening, for about 165 guests were in the dining room and enjoyed a very good dinner and happy surroundings. Every one was anxious for the election returns, both local and for the presidential contest. After dinner the guests, between announcement of returns, danced and made merry until a late hour. The people who entertained with dinner parties included Mr. C. T. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. E. Oscar White, Mr. and Mrs. H. Harders, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Belser, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Petrie, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. St. C. Sayres, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Guard, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno K. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Bush, Mr. Donald Gilmore, Mr. W. P. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. V. Forster, Mr. Allen Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coombs, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel DeForest, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atherton, Mr. George Denison, Mr. and Mrs. George Curry, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sheedy, Mr. Healy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Blake, Mr. Dave Larsen, Mr. N. B. Young, Mr. T. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Mooney, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Janczer. It was voted a decidedly successful evening.

MRS. JAMES D. DOUGHERTY'S LUNCHEON

"Laniaka." Miss Helen Alexander's tea and lunch room, was the setting for a very pretty luncheon on Tuesday of this week when Mrs. James D. Dougherty was hostess, honoring her sister, Miss Grace Robertson, a bride-to-be. In the center of the table was a low brown basket and in this was an old-fashioned bouquet made up of sweet peas, pansies, forget-me-nots, Cecil Bruner roses and sprays of lily fern. Under this attractive bouquet was an old-fashioned paper lace frill. At each guest cover was a miniature bouquet arranged the same way. Mrs. Dougherty's guests were Miss Grace Robertson, the guest of honor; Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Sibyl Robertson, Mrs. Reynolds B. McGrew, Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. Ralph Clark and Mrs. William B. Lyner. After luncheon dainty needle work kept the guests occupied for an hour.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT HIND'S SUPPER

The Robert Hinds' Green street home was the setting for one of the prettiest pot suppers given in many a day, in honor of Princess Kawananakoa. The dining room and lunais were decorated with great baskets and bowls of flaming ixora. The Tiffany lights over the large circular dining table were gracefully trimmed with delicate asparagus vine and red illusion. The table was exquisite. Here again the red and green were carved out to perfection. A quintet club furnished music during the pot supper and for the rest of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinds' guests were Princess Kawananakoa, the guest of honor; Miss Mary Low, Miss Clara Low, Mr. and Mrs. Renton Hind, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Pugsley, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas, Miss Muriel Hind, Miss Edith Kynnersley, Mr. Ernest Parker, Mr. Ogg, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Capt. Smith Cochran of Meadow Brook, Long Island, and Miss Irene Dickson.

CAPT. AND MRS. ROBERT O. EDWARDS' DINNER

The Country Club was the setting for a very pretty dinner given on Friday evening by Capt. and Mrs. Robert O. Edwards, when they entertained, honoring Mrs. Chris Miller and Miss Miller of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Chamberlin of San Francisco. Capt. and Mrs. James A. Gallogly, Capt. and Mrs. William W. Hicks. The table bore a bronze basket filled with golden daylight lilies and long trailers of asparagus vine most effectively used. The name cards were dainty bits of hand-painted cardboard. The dance at the Country Club was the diversion for the evening.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN J. BELSER'S DINNER

The dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Belser was another of the Commercial Club "election return dinners," as the club was the point of vantage for a large portion of the businessmen and their wives interested in the presidential returns. A bulletin board in the club dining room told of the returns as they were flashed over the wires. Mr. and Mrs. Belser's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Christian Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. George Angus, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morse and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Budd.

A MEXICAN LUNCHEON

Last Sunday at the Peninsula Miss Mary Low was hostess at a Mexican luncheon honoring Princess David Kawananakoa. The table was decorated with dainty flower and greens. The friends invited by Miss Low to honor Princess Kawananakoa were Mrs. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray, Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. John T. McCrosson, Dr. and Mrs. Pugsley, Mrs. Carl Widemann and Miss Rose Brown.

MRS. CARL HOLLOWAY'S POT SUPPER

Mrs. Carl Holloway is entertaining a company of guests at a pot supper this evening. Mrs. Chris Miller, Miss Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Chamberlin of San Francisco are those honored.

MISS SIBYL ROBERTSON HONORS HER SISTER AND FIANCE

Miss Grace Robertson and her fiancé, Mr. Harry Hoffman, were the guests of honor at a very enjoyable cabaret supper on Wednesday evening. The dining room was aglow in red flaming ixora and African daisies, and quantities of soft greens were very artistically used in decorating the dining and living room. Between courses, to the music of a quartet the happy company danced. Every one was expected to do a "stunt" and did it, some of them being very laughable. The guests left reluctantly at a late hour.

Miss Robertson's guests were Miss Grace Robertson and Mr. Harry Hoffman, the guests of honor; Miss Abbie Buchanan, Miss Katherine Williams, Miss Betty Moulton, Miss Ben Conrad, Lieut. Howard P. Milligan, Mr. Henry Parker, Lieut. Eugene Robinson, Lieut. Edward Rose, Mr. Arch Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Dougherty and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray.

PRINCESS DAVID KAWANANAKOA HONORED

The flower that is famous in Hawaii, hibiscus, was used by Mrs. Charles Chillingworth on Tuesday, when she entertained honoring Princess David Kawananakoa. The table was a pastel colored bank of pinks and pale yellows in every size grown. All of those used were hybrids, and the achievement of Mr. Thomas P. Cummings. The table was greatly admired, for the blossoms were beautiful. Bud vases held the long stemmed blooms and made a very stunning table. Lighted pink shaded tapers were an added adornment. The name cards were hand-painted buds.

Mrs. Chillingworth's guests were Princess David Kawananakoa, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mrs. Albert N. Campbell, Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mrs. August Dreier, Mrs. J. Morton Riggs, Mrs. Albert P. Taylor, Mrs. William A. Purdy, Mrs. Harvey Gray, Mrs. Ferdinand Hons, Mrs. Matteo Sandona, Mrs. Victor Houston, Mrs. Frank Stillman, Miss Margaret McIntyre and Miss Irene Dickson.

RECEPTION FOR THE GREAT NORTHERN PASSENGERS

The management of the Pleasanton Hotel has gone to no end of effort to extend a hearty aloha to the passengers of the Great Northern when they arrive on Tuesday. The Hawaiian band will give a concert in the evening and a group of the old-time Hawaiians will give an exhibition of fancy and artistic dancing as used to be seen here years ago. On Wednesday a dinner-dance will be given and Kaala's quintet will furnish Hawaiian music during the dinner hour and for dancing afterwards. The hotel is making a specialty of the Wednesday and Sunday dinners and next Wednesday it will all be very gay as a large number of people have reserved tables and will have dinner parties. The dancing by the Hawaiians will be on the lawn of the hotel grounds and no doubt will attract the kamaainas as well as the malihinis.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH E. SHEEDY'S DINNER

One of the enjoyable dinners at the Commercial Club on Tuesday evening was that at which Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Sheedy presided. The friends enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Sheedy's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Byron E. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Church, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Coke and Mr. John Sheedy.

MAUI "BOOSTER" DINNER

Society and business representatives turned out in force on Thursday evening when the Grand Hotel of Waikuku, Maui, was the scene of a "booster dinner." A banquet at which 250 guests sat down was the feature to promote the coming County Fair, after which dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. The banquet and dancing hall was beautifully decorated for this festive occasion.

A NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT

Miss Jessie Rae took a very novel way of entertaining a company of friends on Wednesday evening. She invited the company to a "botany party." On entering the lanai one was greeted with 35 different kinds of shrubs and the leaves and branches each bore a tag with a number. Each guest was privileged to examine as closely as he or she wished and put the name down. When the time allotted was up, it was found that Mrs. G. Watson had distinguished herself by being familiar with 31 of the names. Mrs. Horace Vaughan was second and Mrs. Johnson won the consolation prize. Each was given a pretty piece of Canton ware. After the game was over auction bridge was the program and Mrs. Lister, winning, was given a Canton bowl for scoring highest.

Miss Rae's guests were Dr. and Mrs. Archibald Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. G. Watson, Mrs. Horace Vaughan, Mrs. Jean Moulton, Mrs. Lister, Miss E. McMenamin, Mr. and Mrs. Magruder, Gordon Maury, Miss Fitzpatrick, Mrs. W. M. Johnson, Mr. William Johnson, Mr. Kenneth Alexander and Mr. C. E. King.

CAPT. AND MRS. BRAINERD TAYLOR'S DINNER

Capt. and Mrs. Brainerd Taylor of Fort Ruger, were hosts for dinner at the Country Club on Friday evening. Their guests were Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter, Miss Hunter, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Andrew Hero, Lieut. Col. Powell C. Fauntleroy, Capt. and Mrs. Walter C. Baker, Mrs. Bradley, Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm P. Andrus, Capt. John L. Holcombe and Mrs. J. H. Lee Holcombe, all of Fort Kamehameha; Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Magruder of Fort Ruger, and Mrs. W. E. Richardson, who is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Taylor. The table decorations were white and red, the centerpiece of white chrysanthemums and African daisies.

MISS RUTH SOPER GIVES A DINNER

Around a table made very attractive with a rock crystal bowl filled with flaming red ixora, Miss Ruth Soper entertained a company of friends on Wednesday evening. Kewpies with attractive red hats marked each guest's cover. After dinner Miss Soper and her guests attended the Bijou and then went to Helinie's to enjoy the dance. Miss Soper's guests were Miss Muriel Hind, Miss Edith Kynnersley, Mr. Cornell Franklin, Mrs. Alexander Budge and Mr. Francis Brown.

DR. AND MRS. ARTHUR HODGINS' CHOWDER

Last Saturday evening Dr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Hodgins entertained a company of friends at their Kahala home. A swim, then a chowder opened the program, after which the guests motored to Helinie's, where a table had been reserved, and a very delightful evening ensued. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. James Dougherty and Mr. George Marshall.

MISS MILDRED CLEMENS TO BE HONORED

The three local chapters of the order of Eastern Star will give a reception at the Outrigger Club on Wednesday, November 14, honoring Miss Mildred Clemens, niece of Mark Twain, and a visitor here. The reception will be from 2:30 till 5. A large number are expected.

MR. AND MRS. G. FRED BUSH'S DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Bush entertained a company of friends at the Commercial Club on Tuesday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lyser, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Dorothy Hawk, Mr. Gavin Bush and Mr. Shirley Bush.

Mrs. Elizabeth Knight, who is being heartily welcomed back to Honolulu by many friends, and who is the incentive for numerous affairs.

AFFAIRS ON BOARD THE WARRIOR

Mr. Alexander Smith Cochran, who has been a visitor in Honolulu with his yacht for a week, is a multi-millionaire who has practically retired from all business except that of getting and giving pleasure. He brought letters to several well known Honolulu men and during his short stay here was entertained quite a bit. In return he had several affairs on board the Warrior, one on Tuesday last, at which Princess Kawananakoa was the guest of honor. The other guests were Mrs. Van Tassel, Miss Vera Damon, Mrs. A. P. Taylor, Miss Irene Dickson, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. J. Morton Riggs, and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane. Mr. Cochran has just purchased Brookholt, adjoining Meadowbrook farm, and he plans a polo field on Staten Island. Brookholt was laid out by H. P. Belmont and is considered one of the great show places in the East. Mr. Cochran has invited the polo people whom he has met in Hawaii to come East and play on his field, which no doubt will be done. Mr. Cochran was a college classmate of Mr. Charles Hemenway and Mr. Albert F. Judd of Honolulu.

MISS DOROTHY HARKER HONORS MISS BUCKLAND

Miss Hazel Buckland was the motif for a sashet shower given on Thursday afternoon by Miss Dorothy Harker at her Kewalo street home. The afternoon was spent doing needlework. Miss Harker's guests were Miss Hazel Buckland, the guest of honor; Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Marion Chapin, Miss Martha McChesney and Miss Vivian Buckland.

PRINCESS DAVID KAWANANAKOA AT LANIAKEA

About a dozen friends enjoyed a jolly hour on the lawn at "Laniaka" with Princess David Kawananakoa as hostess. The guests of this very popular matron were Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Atholt, Mrs. William A. Purdy, Mrs. Victor Houston, Miss Irene Dickson, Mrs. James Lewis and Mrs. Marten Sandona.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH SARNES' INFORMAL PARTY

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sarnes are entertaining with a very informal four-table bridge. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Saville, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Schmutzler, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Renton Hind, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jamieson, Miss Catherine Woodford and Mr. Woodford.

RECEPTION AT KAWAIAHAW SEMINARY

The reception at Kawaiahaw on Monday evening last honoring Dr. and Mrs. Doremus Scudder and Miss Kathryn Adams was a very pretty affair. It was held in the chapel, which had been exquisitely decorated with hundreds of flaming African daisies, the gift of Mrs. Castle. Palms and baskets of beautiful ferns made a most attractive setting for the farewell to the Scudders and the welcome to Miss Adams. In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. Doremus Scudder, President and Mrs. Robert Day Williams of the Mid-Pacific Institute, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Atherton and Miss Kathryn Adams, who is the new principal of Kawaiahaw. About 250 friends were in attendance.

It was said to be the loveliest affair Kawaiahaw has ever given. A trellis was hung in vines and lilies in front of the choir and lilies in front of a group of Hawaiian girls sang beautifully. The girls' glee club is a splendid one and on Monday evening its singing was exquisite.

MR. AND MRS. ALEXANDER G. HAWES' DINNER

"Laniaka" was the setting for a dinner given on Wednesday evening of this week by Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes. The private dining room was used. The table was exquisite, a low basket being filled with flaming ixora, the basket handle tied with a huge butterfly bow or red maline and the lighted tapers in their silver candle holders were shaded in red and silver. The name cards which marked each guest cover were extremely pretty—lads and ladies, in gay attire. Princess Kawananakoa was the guest of honor, as she has been at innumerable functions this week. She is called the best groomed woman in Honolulu and the handsomest, so it is little wonder that she is the center of attraction wherever she goes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawes' guests were Princess Kawananakoa, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Matilda Sandona, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Taylor, Mrs. Grafton Beall, Mr. George Marshall, Capt. James Uilo and Mr. Harry Macfarlane.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM WILLIAMSON'S DINNER

Prior to the Country Club dance on Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson entertained a company of guests at dinner.

MR. AND MRS. RUDOLF BUCHLEY ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Buchley entertained the talented Cherniatskys after the concert on Tuesday evening. A supper at Helinie's was in store for the guests afterward. Ten friends enjoyed meeting the clever artists.
